Vancouver, BC | Celebrated chefs from across Canada are hosting four multicourse collaborative dinners to support the Hawksworth Young Chef Scholarship.

After a successful inaugural event in 2013, the Hawksworth Young Chef Scholarship is expanding nationally with three regional heats for 2014; in the search for a young Canadian Red Seal chef who can wow the judges and take home the $10,000 prize, presented by the Chef's Table Society of BC.

The competition kicks off with the Western Heat taking place at Calgary's SAIT on June 22. Justin Leboe and David Hawksworth will be showcasing the best of western Canadian cuisine that evening at Model Milk, tickets cost $135 with wine pairings and can be reserved by calling 403.265.7343.

Next up is the Central Heat at Toronto's Georgia Brown College. Oliver & Bonacini's Corporate Executive Chef Anthony Walsh will be cooking with Chef Hawksworth at Luma on June 24. This collaborative dinner is $90 and can be booked through Luma at 647.288.4715.

Finishing up the first round of competition is the Atlantic Heat. Celebrated restaurant Raymond's, and head chef Jeremy Charles, host in St. John's, Newfoundland on June 27. The coinciding competition takes place on the 29th in Kentville, NS at the Nova Scotia Community College. Reservations are being taken at 709.579.5800: tickets are $125.

After the final round of competition and the awarding of the second scholarship recipient on September 28, all of the final judges will again be serving an amazing meal at Hawksworth Restaurant to toast another successful year. Chef Hawksworth will be joined by Chefs Kristian Eligh, Scott Jaeger, Anthony Walsh, Normand Laprise, and Mark McEwan. This multicourse dinner will cost $140 and bookings can be made by calling 604.673.7000.
